LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market $1.15. Hopkins sells the clothing and shoes. On shoes off at Miles & Armstrong's.

See those shoes that Hopkins is just about giving away. Like the hiss of an adder seems to a man an oath from a woman's lips.

Don't miss the shoe sale at Miles & Armstrong's. The fourth annual State convention of the Royal Templars of Temperance of Pennsylvania was held at Harmonsburg, on Friday Jan. 20.

There are now 39 children in the Odd Fellows' Home at Meadville. The lodge at Smethport, McKean county, has applied for the admission of seven more.

Proper Bros. struck a strong gas well on the Kiser farm, German Hill, last week. Geo. J. Judges think the flow would be sufficient to supply a hundred stoves nicely.

The people of Jefferson county will vote at the approaching February election on the question of whether or not they shall have a public poor house in that county.

List of letters remaining uncalled for in the Tionesta, Pa., post office for the week ending January 25, 1899. Mr. C. Y. Carlson, "foreign." C. A. Croft. D. S. KNOX, P. M.

We want at once several reliable salesmen to sell our complete line of mill, engine and thresher supplies. Steady employment all year round. The Crown Supply Company, Cleveland, O. 1

Editor Willis Cowan of the Warren Mail has been elected to the position of billbook clerk in the House at Harrisburg. A favor very worthily bestowed and one which we are exceedingly happy to note.

The Cuban Spy at Kellestville next Saturday evening. A very pleasing entertainment, with which there is interspersed a sufficient fund of comicallities to keep an audience in fine spirits the entire evening.

A nice variety and the freshest of everything is rather to be desired than a large stock and much staleness. Amser carries the former and you can't go amiss when looking for a wholesome viand for the table.

The teachers of Kingsley township will hold a local institute at Kellestville next Saturday, beginning at 10 a. m. An afternoon session will also be held. A good program has been arranged. The public is cordially invited.

Messrs. Foley Bros., Olean, N. Y., have just completed a contract with H. A. Jamieson, of Warren, Pa., for the erection of a monument to be placed in the coming spring, which will be the largest in Warren county.

Sugar in packages is a new thing in the grocery business, and where introduced is said to be popular. The new plan saves the retailer a great deal of time and work and there is no loss in weight, as there always is when it is weighed loose.

The well on Jacob Smearbaugh's place, west end of Tionesta creek bridge, was shot at a depth of 250 feet, last Thursday, but failed to respond with oil in anything like paying quantity. We understand it is the intention of the operator to go on to the third sand.

There will be two eclipses of the sun during the year 1899, and two of the moon, viz June 7, another eclipse of the sun, December 2, total eclipse of the moon on June 23, partial eclipse of the moon December 16. The only eclipse which can be observed here is the last mentioned.

Pennsylvania has more legal holidays than any other State in the Union. The number is 11. New York has 10. Three of these holidays occur in the shortest month in the year, February. They are Lincoln's birthday, Feb. 12; election day, Feb. 21, and Washington's birthday, Feb. 22.

The Northwestern District Anniversary Odd Fellows' Association, made up of lodges in eight counties mostly east of Warren, will hold its annual meeting in Warren on the 20th of April next, the anniversary of the order in America. A committee of arrangements has been appointed from Warren lodge.

The Republicans of Barnett township have nominated the following ticket for the February election: Constable, J. W. Jones; school directors, R. N. Marshall, J. P. Ions; road commissioner, A. C. Clark; overseer of poor, Edward Kerr; treasurer, Philo Williams; auditor, W. C. Cook, clerk, J. E. Cosgrove; judge of elections, J. W. Dobson; inspector, Levi Reynolds.

George McKay, indicted for murder in the Carters case in the Venango county courts, for which Walter Wheaton was convicted in the second degree at the last term, entered a plea of guilty—or nolle contendere, its equivalent—to second degree murder, which was accepted by the Commonwealth on Monday. Sentence will be passed on the prisoner later in the week. It was McKay's confession that was almost wholly responsible for Wheaton's conviction.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Amann were visiting Warren friends Friday and Saturday last.

Mrs. Jane Grove, of Tionesta, is spending the week with relatives here.—Franklin News.

Miss Kate Canfield is paying a visit to her sister, Mrs. Harry Bruner, at West Hickory.

Ex-Prothonotary Arner was in Oil City Thursday on business connected with his real estate agency.

The Republican acknowledges a pleasant call Monday from Mr. J. B. Erb, of Elkina, W. Va., who has been visiting of friends in this section for a month or two past.

Mr. Josiah Work, the Clarion river lumberman and stock dealer, is off on an extended western trip. His first stop will be in the Dakotas, and later he will visit Mexico.—Brookville Republican.

Charlie Dewalt has gone to Rimersburg to visit his sister, and before returning will consult a specialist for an affection of his eyes, which compelled him to relinquish his studies at school here.

R. J. Thompson, former clerk for F. R. Lanson of this place, and later engaged at Mayburg, this county, will shortly move to Costello, Putter county, where he will be engaged in book-keeping for the Penn Tanning Co.

It will please a host of friends all over the county to learn that Charlie Klinefelter of Nebraska has been appointed to a position in the House at Harrisburg this winter, and on Monday of this week started for there to begin his work. Charlie has been one of the sturdy, young laborers in the lumber woods of this county, but two years ago was overtaken by ill health and incapacitated for hard work. He has always been a staunch Republican, and this little plum will be a help to him which no one who knows him will for a moment begrudge to him.

Dwelling Burned. The dwelling house of Levi Reynolds, about two miles from Clarington, in Barnett township, burned to the ground a few days ago. An organ, a bedstead and some bedding is the extent of the household effects saved. We are without particulars as to the origin of the fire or amount of loss sustained by Mr. Reynolds, but it will likely be about $500, with no insurance.

For a few days of the past week the roads were in fine condition, beaten down and frozen hard, the average thoroughfare resembling a paved street. But all this is changed again, and we're groaning over mud and slush once more.

Amser has it if it is for use on the table. Always a nice variety of vegetables and fruits. Likewise about everything in the grocery line, together with the best market affords in confections, cigars, tobacco, etc.

Who is Tubbs, one of the candidates who is receiving a few votes for Senator on each ballot?—Franklin News. Don't know a great deal about it, but guess it's one of the things Bill Flinn is using to knock Quay out with—in the interest of "reform."

Dr. Towler, Forest county's member of the legislature, has been assigned to the following committees by Speaker Farr: Ways and Means, Public Health and Sanitation (sec'y), Retrenchment and Reform, Law and Order, Fish and Game, and Printing. The former is one of the most important committees of the House.

The changeable weather of our variable climate, which makes one weary and produces colds and grip as fast as doctors can take care of them, has also induced someone to indite the following appropriate lines:

First it rained and then it blew; Then it friz and then it snow; Then we had a shower of rain, And then it friz and snow again.

Joseph Emert, who carries the mail between Tionesta and Tylersburg, has been perhaps the most regular route agent in the State during the past year. His route covers 28 miles, coming and going, and he has not missed a trip during the entire year, or 313 in all, and covering 8,764 miles, or about one trip to China, going straight down through the earth. We doubt whether this record can be beaten.

Through the courtesy of Rev. J. V. McAninch we had the pleasure of glancing over a souvenir supplement of the Marion Center, Pa., Independent, C. R. Griffith, publisher. Besides a history of the town and biographical sketches of many of its citizens, it is nicely illustrated with half tone cuts. The Independent is wide awake, and well edited and full of crisp local news. The issue in question has a very spicy article from the pen of Mrs. A. T. Bell, wife of Rev. Bell, so well and favorably known in Tionesta. The article is chock full of good sense, tersely put, and very readable.

Marienville Express.—Well No. 1 on the lease of the Brookville Oil and Gas company, north of town, gave the owners and others quite a surprise Saturday. A very heavy pressure of gas had been struck and the well had been shut in pending arrangements for its use. On Saturday afternoon the wind shook the derrick and loosened the fastenings, when the force of gas asserted its strength and forced the tubing and casing out of the hole and completely demolished the derrick. Oil and gas men say they never knew of a similar occurrence. Pieces of the casing were thrown 600 feet from the hole. Claud Smith, manager for the company, is having a new derrick built and will repair the damage as speedily as possible.

Patrick Mooney, for many years one of Forest county's prosperous farmers, died at the home of his daughter at Siverly, Pa., Jan. 23, 1899, after an illness of several years caused by rheumatic troubles. Mr. Mooney lived at Fagnundus until the death of his wife, about two years ago, when he gave up active farming and made his home with his children, six of whom survive him, as follows: Mrs. May Hawk, of Siverly; Mrs. Annie Hagan and Mrs. Bridget Flack, of Oil City; James, of Fagnunda; Patrick of Boston, and John of Oil City. Mr. Mooney was an excellent man in all respects, and as a neighbor and citizen bore the high esteem of all who knew him. He was 68 years of age. The funeral services were to be held at 9 o'clock this morning in St. Joseph's church.

La Grippe Successfully Treated. "I have just recovered from the second attack of la grippe this year," says Mr. Jas. A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexico, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy as I had to go to bed in about six hours after having been 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" How to Prevent Pneumonia. You are perhaps aware that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of la grippe.
